

IRAF command list

mkiraf → Create the IRAF startup files (only need to do this once) xterm / xgterm → Open a terminal window cl → Start IRAF (the login.cl file is executed at this point) ds9 & → Start the image display Ds9 help → Find out what core IRAF packages are available package → Find out what packages are loaded bye → Unload the last package that was loaded

? → Find out what tasks are in the currently loaded package unlearn → Restore the original default parameters for a task lpar → List the parameters for a task epar → Edit the parameters for a task

:q → Exit epar and save the changes to the uparm directory

:go → Execute a task from epar with the current parameters flpr / flprcache → It is generally good practice to execute flprcache a few times after an abort gprepare → Execute a task from the cl command line history → Access history imheader → Print an image header fxheader → List one line of header description per FITS unit imstat → Compute and print statistics for an image gemarith → Arithmetic on MEF files gemcombine → Combine MEF files by extension wmef → Convert single extension fits files to MEF files gemlist → Generate a list of file names in standard Gemini format display → Load an image or image section into the display imexam → Examine images using image display, graphics, and text imcopy → Copy an image logout → Log out of IRAF